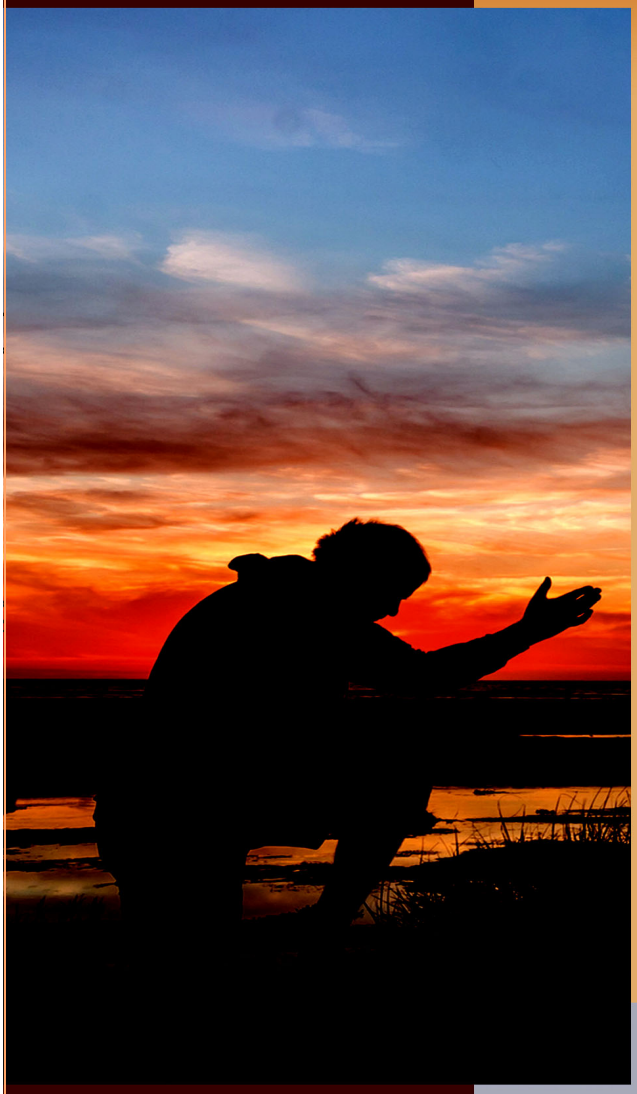
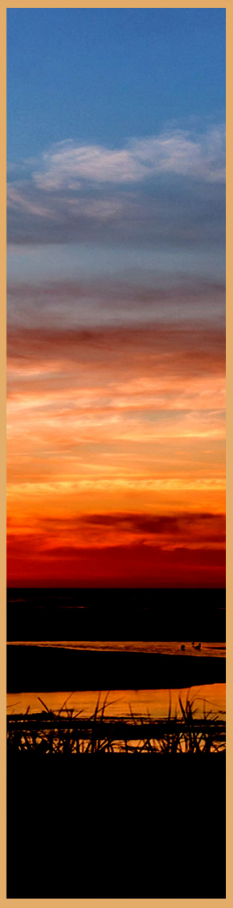
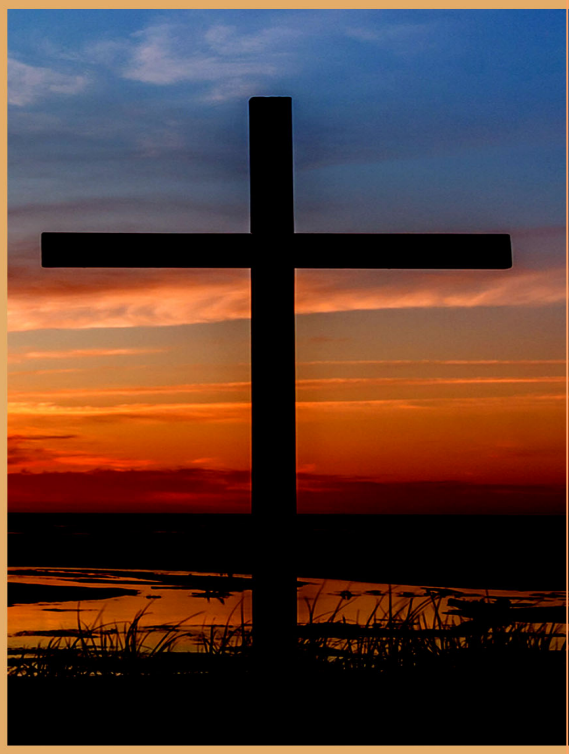
THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME







Jesus said to them,
"I tell you, the tax collector went home justified,
not the Pharisee; for whoever exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted."

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading -- The LORD is a God of justice who hears the cry of the oppressed, the orphan, the widow, the lowly (Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18).

Psalm -- The Lord hears the cry of the poor (Psalm 34).

Second Reading -- The crown of righteousness awaits me (2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18).

Gospel -- The tax collector stood at a distance, beat his breast, and prayed, "O God, be merciful to me, a sinner" (Luke 18:9-14).

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

NO COMPARISONS

How many times have we read or heard about someone who's gotten into trouble--maybe even fired from a job--because of a brush with the law? While our "Christian" minds tell us to be sorry and even pray for the person, a little voice inside our heads may also be saying, "I'm glad I would never do anything like that."

And perhaps we wouldn't. But are there some things we do that are still not pleasing in God's eyes? Today's readings caution us not to look so intently at someone else's wrongdoing that we overlook our own weaknesses and shortcomings. When we measure ourselves against the worst people we can think of, we come out looking pretty good. There is a danger, however, in using someone else's behavior as a way of reflecting our own goodness.

Luke 18:9-14: Pharisees and Tax Collectors

Years ago when I was doing my research on the history of the Second Vatican Council (1962-1965), I came across a very good commentary on one of the Council's documents, Nostra Aetate—on the relations between the Catholic Church and NON-Christian religions. The Jews were the main emphasis of this document: the Church could no longer stay silent on the question of our Jewish brothers and sisters after the Holocaust claimed the lives of six million Jews! The main author of this commentary (if I remember correctly) was a German scholar and a convert to Catholicism from Judaism. Anyway, as I recall vaguely, his description of the Pharisees was quite perceptive. They were not as inflexible and rigid as we sometimes think. Rather they were quite up-to-date with society, willing to adapt Judaism to new circumstances. For that reason, they were able to survive after the destruction of the Temple by the Romans (70 AD); whereas the Sadducees, the other major group that was more conservative, vanished. Even though in some passages in the Gospels, Jesus seems to come down hard on the Pharisees, they should be remembered for their merits—St. Paul himself was a Pharisee before his conversion… With that in mind, I do not want my audience to have negative preconceived notions about the Pharisees.

How about the tax collectors? Those people and the sinners usually go together in the Gospels: because by the very nature of their professions, they were sinners. They were the most notorious people during the time of Jesus. They were Jews, but collected tax for the Romans. They lived off the money of their own people while working for the foreign invaders. In a sense, tax collectors were those who willfully renounced their own religious and ancestral heritage. That is why the Pharisees (and just any ordinary Jew) reacted strongly whenever Jesus ate with sinners and tax collectors… Against this background, we come to today's Gospel reading about the proud Pharisee and the repentant tax collector. As mentioned above, we should not just categorize all the Pharisees in this negative light. This is a parable about one certain Pharisee and one tax collector. In any case, anybody who heard that parable from the mouth of Jesus would think that it is the Pharisee who would be justified. But not so quick… the tax collector is the one justified. Jesus indeed came to seek what was lost and to bring healing to the sick. The preaching of Kingdom of God by Jesus is really a reversal of ordinary human expectations… No wonder why we often hear these phrases in the Gospels: "The first shall be last and the last shall be first;" and "whoever humbles himself will be exalted…"

Lord Jesus Christ, Redeemer of the world, you have shouldered the burden of our weakness and borne our sufferings in your own passion and death. Hear this prayer for our sick brothers and sister whom you have redeemed. Strengthen their hope of salvation and sustain them in body and soul, for you live and reign for ever and ever. Amen.

God, our shelter and our strength, you listen in love to the cry of your people: hear the prayers we offer for our departed brothers and sisters. Cleanse them of their sins and grant them the fullness of redemption. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

World Mission Sunday is a call to local Churches on every continent to rediscover the urgent necessity to face the multiple serious challenges of our times in the light of the Gospel. The Lord addresses the missionary call to every baptized Christian. Established Churches have consistently supplied material means, priests, religious and lay believers for service in overseas missions. This has benefited not only the struggling mission Church, but also those who shared and served. Today, considering the crisis of the family, the decreasing number of vocations coupled with the progressive aging of clergy and religious, and questionable financial security, there is danger of looking with less hope to the future and slackening in missionary endeavor. For precisely these reasons it is time to show our confidence in God who accomplishes his plan of salvation.

Newly evangelized Churches are also called to mission. Many young dioceses are rich with great numbers of seminarians and religious which they exchange as gifts to the traditional, established churches. World Mission Sunday raises the awareness of the universal nature of Christ's call to spread his Kingdom to the ends of the earth. "The Church is missionary by her very nature," John Paul II writes in his Encyclical Redemptoris Missio. "For Christ's mandate is not something contingent or external, but reaches the very heart of the Church. It follows that the universal Church and each individual church is sent forth to the nations."

This special collection provides regular annual assistance to about 1,100 mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, and remote parts of South America to help support pastoral and evangelizing programs, catechists and catechetical work, the building of churches and chapels, the work of Religious Communities in health care and education, and communication and transportation needs. This fund is distributed in its entirety each year to ensure that the poor of the Missions receive help and the hope that comes from knowing the love of Jesus Christ.

SECOND COLLECTION WILL TAKE PLACE THIS WEEKEND OCT 22 & OCT 23 FOR THE WORLD MISSION TO HELP THOSE IN NEEDS IN AFRICA, ASIA, AND SOUTH AMERICA. ENVELOPES CAN BE FOUND IN THE VESTIBULES AND IN THE PEWS. THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY.

ĐỂ ĐƯỢC CHÚA XÓT THƯƠNG CN 30-C

"Vì phàm ai tôn mình lên sẽ bị hạ xuống…" (Lc 18,14)

Suy niệm: Chúng ta không khó để nhận ra những hình thức quảng cáo hiện nay qua những kỷ lục như đòn bánh tét dài nhất hay những tô phở lớn nhất… chỉ là sự khoa trương và thổi phồng sự thật. Nếu quảng cáo là đem đến sự hiểu biết về một sản phẩm, thì đa phần đang thổi phồng giá trị và cả sự lừa dối bằng những hình thức bắt mắt và những mối lợi tưởng dễ dàng. Con người chúng ta thường bị cám dỗ kiêu ngạo và tự mãn bởi những việc mình làm hay công đức mình nghĩ đã lập được. Chúng ta quên mất thân phận thật của chính mình: Thân phận con người nhiều giới hạn, yếu đuối và tội lỗi. Những gì được ban cho là do bởi Tình Yêu, sự thật chúng ta chỉ là tội nhân và cần được lòng thương của Chúa cứu vớt.

Mời Bạn: Kiêu ngạo là một mối tội lớn của con người, đã làm cắt đứt mối tương quan con người với Thiên Chúa là Chủ trong thân phận của một thụ tạo. Chúng ta được mời gọi luôn luôn có thái độ khiêm tốn và thống hối để nhận ra thân phận tội lỗi của mình, để nhờ đó nhận được lòng xót thương của Thiên Chúa. Vì "Lời cầu nguyện trong sự khiêm nhường sẽ nhận được lòng xót thương của Thiên Chúa"(ĐTC Phanxicô).

Sống Lời Chúa: Xét mình để thấy hành vi nào hôm nay mình đã sống khoe khoang, giả hình và kiêu ngạo. Quyết tâm ăn năn dốc lòng chừa, khiêm tốn xin Chúa tha thứ cho lỗi lầm ấy và đến với Bí tích Hòa Giải.

NO HACER COMPARACIONES

¿Cuántas veces hemos leído o escuchado acerca de alguien que se metió en problemas, incluso despedido de su empleo, por un roce con la ley? Mientras nuestras mentes "cristianas" nos dicen que nos apiademos de esa persona y que roguemos por ella, puede que una vocecita interior también esté diciendo: "Me alegro de que yo nunca haría algo así".
Y tal vez no lo haríamos. Pero, ¿hay algunas cosas que hacemos que no agradan a Dios? Las lecturas de hoy nos advierten no mirar tan atentamente a las maldades de otros que pasamos por alto nuestras propias debilidades y defectos. Cuando nos comparamos con las peores personas a nuestro alrededor, salimos bastante bien. Sin embargo, hay un peligro en usar la conducta ajena como medida para reflejar nuestras propias virtudes.

3-Day Retreat

Oct. 28 - 30, 2016 from Friday 5:00pm to Sunday 6:30pm

Students need to meet at St. Barbara Church from 4:30pm-5:00pm on Friday, October 28th.

Parents are invited to come to the Hall at 4:00pm for a welcome home reception with their children.

REMINDERS!!

Because of the retreat, there will be NO CLASSES from October 30-31, 2016

Retreat is a life changing event. However, we have students with financial needs and would not be able to attend a weekend retreat without your help. If possible, please sponsor a student's cost of $110 or $55 to help make a retreat possible for a youth.
