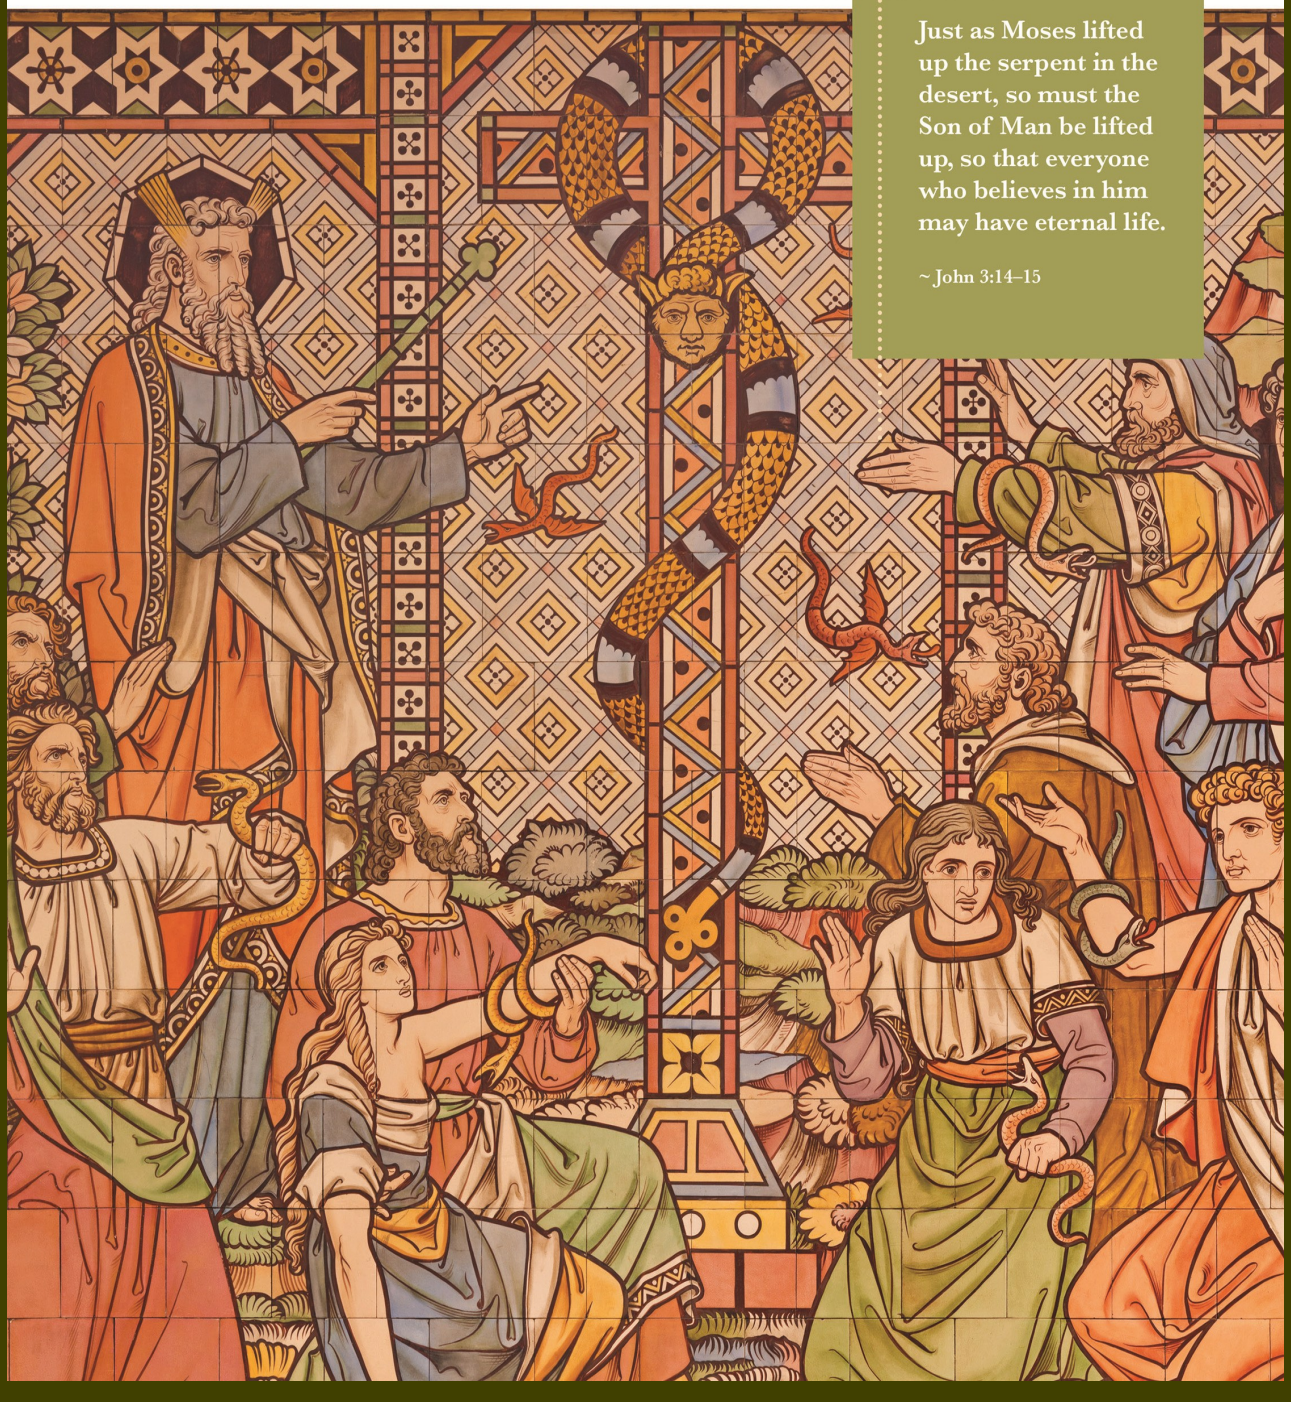
March 14, 2021 | Fourth Sunday of Lent



Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life.

~ John 3:14–15

PRAYERS

Prayer of the Faithful

+++

By grace we have been saved, and so in God's grace let us pray for the needs of the world.

For the Church to live in the light of Christ so that all our works may be clearly seen as done in God, let us pray to the Lord.

For those lands burdened by age-old animosities and present-day warfare, that light and peace will dawn on them, let us pray to the Lord.

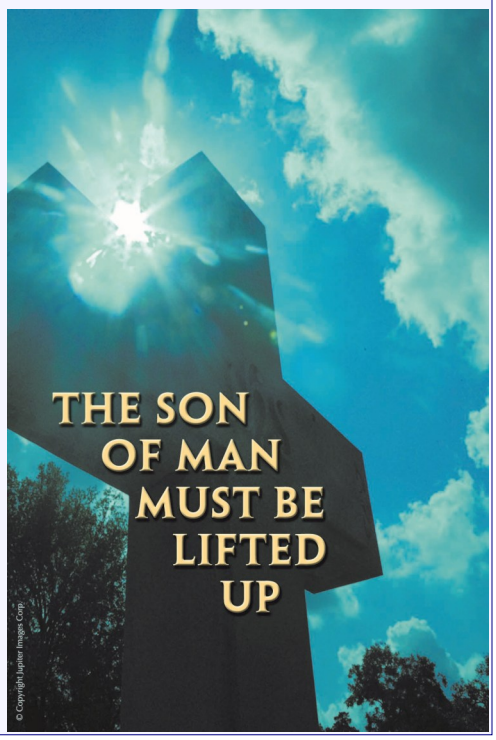
For refugees, for those in exile, for those who have no place to call home because of war, violence, or political oppression, let us pray to the Lord.

For those preparing for the Easter sacraments, especially those in our midst, that they may rejoice in the great love that God has for them, let us pray to the Lord.

For those who serve and protect our nation at home and abroad, and for their families and loved ones, let us pray to the Lord.

For all those who are sick, for all who suffer from COVID-19, and for all who have died, let us pray to the Lord.

For all the prayers that we hold in the silence of our hearts; for all our intentions spoken and unspoken, let us pray to the Lord.



O God of all grace,
we are your handiwork.
Strengthen us for the good works
that you have prepared for us and grant all these our prayers through Jesus Christ our Lord. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

We ask this through Christ our Lord,
Amen

GOD'S MERCY

Today's reading from the second book of Chronicles contains a sort of "mini-history" of Israel. It highlights God's mercies in choosing Cyrus the Persian to be an instrument of deliverance when the people were in captivity in Babylon. Despite their sinfulness and the deserved punishment they were undergoing, God's mercy was lavished on the people in the form of a miraculous act of liberation.

The Letter to the Ephesians, in much more theological terms, gives a similar account of a God "who brought us to life with Christ—by grace you have been saved." The author stresses that it was when we were "dead in our transgressions" that God saved us, an act of pure grace. He emphasizes that it is not our own efforts that freed us from sin ("this is not from you"); rather, "it is the gift of God." This, of course, is the heart of the entire Pauline corpus, that salvation comes to us by faith in God's mercy, revealed in the death of Jesus. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

FEAST OF FAITH

Lent, a Season of the Word

Each year on the First Sunday of Lent we hear one of the Gospel accounts of the temptation of Jesus. In Luke's account, the devil cites the scriptures repeatedly, urging Jesus to interpret them in a false, self-serving way—if God sends angels to protect those whom God loves (as it says in Psalm 91), then prove it! But Jesus resists this insidious temptation by turning to scripture passages that tell of right relationship with God—living by God's word, trusting in God, and worshiping God alone.

Jesus himself listened to the inspired word of God and let it shape and form him. Through the liturgy, we do the same. The readings we hear at Mass can teach us, but that is not their primary function. Rather, the scriptures are meant to reveal the Lord to us, to let us experience his presence, and to form us in our Christian identity. Christ's presence is realized by his spoken word, "since it is he himself who speaks when the Holy Scriptures are read in the Church" (Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, 7). In the readings proclaimed at Mass, we hear the voice of Christ himself. —Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Fourth Sunday of Lent

God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.
John 3:17

GOD UPHOLDS ME

I take for my sure-ties: The power of God to guide me, the might of God to uphold me, the wisdom of God to teach me, the eye of God to watch over me, the ear of God to hear me, the word of God to give me speech, the hand of God to protect me, the way of God to go before me, the shield of God to shelter me.
—St. Patrick
