Catholic School Week

As I mentioned a few times in the course of my preaching, I really enjoyed my time at St. John Neumann Church in Irvine as a newly ordained minister. There is nothing like a good first assignment for a new priest. My second parish was St. Angela Merici in Brea: a very different experience. However, St. Angela offered something that St. John did not: a Catholic school. And now at St. Barbara, once again I am blessed to have a Catholic school in our midst. I always love Catholic education. It is great to see the children marching to their classrooms and to church in their uniforms. But more importantly, it is good to instill in them a sense of reverence for our Catholic traditions… This week, the National Catholic School Week, the Church in the U.S. tries to promote Catholic education among the parishes and among the faithful. For my column this Sunday, I am doing precisely that.

I myself have been greatly indebted to the Catholic University of Louvain, Belgium—founded in 1425 and is considered the world’s oldest existing Catholic University (of course Salamanca and Oxford and Bologna were much older, but none of them is Catholic now). Louvain has helped me tremendously in the way I do/think/write theology. Having been to an old and prestigious Catholic institution, I would definitely recommend Catholic education for our young children. A few important parables of Jesus in the Gospels call us to sow the seed. Protestant Reformer Martin Luther (16th century) once affirmed that even if he knew the world would end tomorrow, he would not hesitate to plant a seed today. I believe that one of the best ways we can plant the seed for our young children is to give them a firm foundation in the way of faith. And that is where Catholic education comes in. We may not see the results right away as we may wish, but we have to trust that in God’s own time and ways God will bring our sowing to fulfillment. The important thing is that we just have to sow.

I want parents to know that a good Catholic education will shape the minds of our young children as they venture into the future. By all means, this is a very good investment. At my former parish, St. Angela, I once spoke with a school parent about the financial burdens of having children at a Catholic school. She responded calmly and told me that people invest in many things: cars, homes, businesses, etc… then why not in their own children? I understand that while not every family can afford a Catholic education for their kids, and that public schools (which, by all means, are very good) can sometimes offer more in terms of resources—parents should do well to invest in their own children in the ways of faith. If you have already done so, we thank you: and keep it up. If you have not, it may be time to think about it. If you have thought about it but have not had a chance to look into the details, you can always contact us. I am asking and challenging Catholic parents to invest wisely: invest in your children. A good Catholic foundation is indeed indispensable for a child!
God’s Plan for Marriage is Beautiful

Come and listen to the promises that God has for you. Prepare for a Christian Marriage within the Catholic Church. This course is for those who are engaged to be married, seriously dating, wanting to have their marriage blessed in the Church, or those who are looking for an answer to the vocation of marriage.

The Word of God is used throughout a series of 10 meetings to introduce the plan of God for marriage. Reconciliation and forgiveness, the holiness of the sexual act in marriage, the education of children, and the family as a light to the world are some of the aspects presented.

Please call John or Gwen Lippold @ 714-842-4094 for more details or Call St. Barbara Church @ 714-775-7733

Classes begin Thursday, February 1st, 2018 @ 7:30 pm in Classroom 2-6 (St. Barbara)

Attention!!

In the effort to have the church environment a place to worship & pray, please do not bring food or drink inside the church. Thank you for your help in keeping the church nice and clean.

Để giữ cho sự trang nghiêm trong Nhà thờ, xin quý vị đừng đem thức ăn và nước uống vào bên trong Nhà thờ.

Thank you.

PROFETAS VERDADEROS

Hoy en Deuteronomio oímos que las palabras de Dios llenarán la boca de un profeta verdadero, pero un profeta falso pondrá, por así decirlo, palabras meramente humanas en boca de Dios. En el Evangelio según san Marcos, vemos a Jesús enseñando y curando como un profeta verdadero con la autoridad de la voz de Dios. La historia de nuestra Iglesia está llena de ambos tipos de profetas. Algunos profetas falsos fueron extremadamente populares y eran muy versados en la Sagrada Escritura, incluso ocupaban puestos de autoridad eclesial. Pero en el Evangelio de hoy descubrimos que la fama de Jesús se extendió porque enseñaba con autoridad; no era una autoridad porque fuera popular o famoso. En otra parte, descubrimos con él, cuando es tentado y enfrenta a Satanás en el desierto, que cualquiera puede citar la Sagrada Escritura, incluso si estos van en contra de los propósitos de Dios. Hoy oímos que su autoridad no era como la de los escribas, que eran la autoridad oficial religiosa en su época. Nuestra tarea es hacer todo lo posible por saber identificar a los verdaderos profetas que están entre nosotros y también a ser verdaderos profetas. El salmista nos dice cómo hacerlo: no debemos endurecer nuestros corazones cuando escuchamos a Dios. Si realmente escuchamos a Dios, Dios pondrá sus palabras en nuestra boca.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El día 2 de febrero se celebrará la Candelaria. En este día se conmemora la purificación de María, cuarenta días después de que dio a luz a Jesús. Candelaria viene del verbo latín candere (brillar), de allí la palabra candela, o sea, veladora. La celebración de la Purificación de María y la Presentación del Niño Jesús en el templo se conmemora con la bendición de todas las velas y veladoras que se van a usar durante el año. Esto se hace con la esperanza de que nunca venga a faltar la luz, tanto material como espiritual, en las casas de los fieles. Los cristianos, como Simeón en el templo, pueden decir que ellos también han visto la salvación; Jesús la verdadera luz que brilla en brazos de María. En Puerto Rico tradicionalmente esta fiesta se celebra con la quemazón de los árboles de navidad, basura, palos, cosas viejas, etc. Esta costumbre subraya el deseo de dejar atrás todo lo malo para que llegue lo bueno; es decir terminar con la oscuridad para que brille la luz.

Baptism
Celebrated in Jan, Mar, May, July, Sept, and Nov. on Sundays at 2:15PM starting Jan 2018
1st Sunday – Vietnamese
2nd Sunday – English
3rd Sunday – Spanish
We strongly urge parent/s to contact the rectory for information during pregnancy or before planning the Baptism. An infant’s Baptism requires a commitment of accepting certain religious and spiritual responsibilities for the child by both parents and godparents. The role of the parish staff is to help assist you in making these commitments.

Perpetual Adoration
7th day of each month
From 9AM—7AM next day

Marriage
Registered parishioners should contact the rectory for an appointment with one of the priests at least six (6) months prior to marriage.

Funeral
At the death of a loved one kindly notify the rectory at your earliest convenience so the dates and times for the Funeral Liturgy may be arranged.
