CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

A Christmas Message from our priests

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Advent, originally from the Latin Adventus, means “coming.” This four-week season begins with the first Sunday that falls on or closest to November 30th, and ends with our celebration of Christmas. This season of joyful preparation and anticipation has a two-fold meaning:

First, it helps us to prepare ourselves spiritually for the commemoration of the birth of Christ, celebrated during the Christmas season. Secondly, it invites us to look forward to Christ’s Triumphant Second Coming at the end of time.

Therefore, all our spiritual work during this Advent Season is about renewing the bonds that bind us to one another and to the Lord. We also reach out with open hearts to build up our relationships with one another and with our God.

We wish you joy, peace, and love this Christmas season; and a blessed happy New Year!

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

Adviento viene del latín "Adventus" y significa "Venir". Esta temporada tiene cuatro semanas, la cual inicia con el primer domingo que está más cerca del 30 de noviembre y termina con nuestra celebración de Navidad. Esta temporada tiene una preparación de gran alegría y tiene dos caracteres importantes:

Primero, nos ayuda a prepararnos espiritualmente para la conmemoración del nacimiento de Cristo durante la temporada navideña. Segundo, también nos ayuda a esperar la segunda venida triunfal de Cristo al final de los tiempos.

*Por tanto, nuestra tarea de esta temporada de Adviento es de renovar los lazos que nos unen al prójimo y al Señor Jesús. Y con corazones abiertos y dispuestos edifiquemos una buena relación con los demás y con el Señor. En mi oración le pido a Dios que les conceda alegría, paz y amor en esta temporada navideña, y un bendito y feliz año nuevo!

Kính thưa Quý Cụ, Quý Ông Bà, và Anh Chị Em,

3rd Sunday of Advent

Why do we believe in Jesus and the Catholic Church? Why should we continue to do so? We've never seen him face-to-face (at least not most of us, I assume). Most of us have never had mystical visions of angels or saints. We live in the same world as our atheist and secularists friends. Why do we believe in Christ if we've never seen him? The simple, symbolic answer the Gospel presents to us this week might surprise us: we believe because of John the Baptist. Early in John's Gospel we hear: "There was a man sent from God, his name was John. He came for testimony, to bear witness to the light, that all might believe through him." The Baptist powerfully announces Jesus. This is a historical fact, and it is also now a pattern at work in our lives.

John the Baptist stands for the entirety of the old covenant, everything entrusted to the Jewish people. And yet he prophetically opens the door to something entirely new in Jesus, to the revival and fulfillment of God's promises. In every generation, and in every human life, God continues to do this. He has done it through people named Augustine, Francis, Catherine, Theresa, and countless others. In my life, the Baptist's spirit has come through persons named Eric, Paul, Mary, and Ron. I challenge you to name at least three people through whom God has announced the coming of Jesus in your life. Consciously thank God for their testimony. And let's commit ourselves to listening to the spirit of John the Baptist testify again this week so that we might more strongly believe in the light. Lpi

"In the Eucharist, the Son of God comes to meet us."
